

In September – October 2017 the LAHD staff conducted the field trials of new improved model of measuring complex

Electrical survey complex
with broadband signal)

The trials showed a significant improvement in the performance of new set of equipment compared to previous model. At this time, the field testing of upgraded magnetometers POS-1 in conjunction with previously developed and produced by LAHD

Autonomous geomagnetic data recording units was conducted.

Written by Administrator

Friday, 03 November 2017 13:31 - Last Updated Friday, 03 November 2017 13:37

